

Phys 101 Tutorial Session Preference Form Fall 2005

Note: There will be weekly help sessions at times to be determined shortly. Students will work together in cooperative groups on the suggested problems under the guidance of an instructor. These sessions are intended to help in developing skills in solving physics problems. These sessions are not mandatory. However, if you sign up for these sessions and actively participate, you will be given credit towards your grade from the pledged problems as specified below. All students are welcome to attend these sessions; however, only those who sign up for them may receive credit for doing so.

1. Name(in CAPITAL letters): _____, _____
Last First

College: _____

2. Please indicate the order of your preference for a Phys 101 Tutorial session meeting time. Some sessions will be oversubscribed, so rank at least three sessions.
